

Summit Objectives

Participants will:

1. Learn about disaster readiness for individuals with special needs and their family members living independently in the community
2. Contribute to the development of a template for individual and family disaster readiness
3. Offer insights into how best to conduct individual and family disaster readiness workshops
4. Gain an understanding of how organizations that provide services to individuals with special needs can engage in readiness planning with the people they care for